

American Association of University Women – Rockford Area Branch
Empowering women and girls since 1881

Co-Presidents:
Judy Schultz/Barbara Simon
aauwrockford@gmail.com

January 28, 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AAUW adopts resolution to support Family Justice Center

ROCKFORD—The American Association of University Women (AAUW) — Rockford Area Branch, has adopted the following resolution, which will be presented to the Rockford (IL) City Council on Monday, January 28, 2019.

RESOLVED

To guarantee equality, individual rights, and social justice for a diverse society, the American Association of University Women (AAUW) advocates freedom from violence and fear of violence, including hate crimes, in homes, schools, work places, and communities.

In line with our Public Policy priorities, AAUW Rockford Area Branch resolves to support the Family Justice Center.

AAUW is a national organization of women and men who hold an associate or equivalent (e.g., RN), baccalaureate, or higher degree from a qualified educational institution, and students enrolled in a qualified institution. The Rockford Branch was founded in 1929.

Learn more at <https://rockfordarea-il.aauw.net/>.

-30-

For additional information or interviews, contact Faye Marcus, Public Policy Chair, fe.marcus@att.net, 815- 988-4499.