AAUW to host 'Stories from the Border' talk

Posted Nov 11, 2019 at 12:08 PM

LOVES PARK — The American Association of University Women-Rockford Branch will sponsor a talk by Linda Zuba, "Stories from the Border," set to be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Nov. 13 at the North Suburban Library at 6340 N. Second St.

Zuba is a community activist and lawyer who has been to the U.S. border in Texas and Tijuana, Mexico, several times to assist asylum seekers. She will discuss why asylum seekers are fleeing their countries, what the U.S. is doing to help them and what are common myths associated with their stories.
